City Manager

TRACY CITY HALL

Tracy: Think Inside the Triangle

Tracy is a town where tradition is constantly reinvented. And while the City continues to move forward, it never leaves its foundation. Tracy is a diverse, growing community that never forgets its roots and maintains its small-town feel. The City presents countless opportunities for families, businesses, and anyone looking to join us on our road to municipal excellence.

One of the City's primary draws is its location. Tracy is centered in a triangle formed by the major interstates of 580, 205 and 5, situated just an hour from Sacramento, San Francisco and San Jose. A longtime bedroom community for those working in these urban hubs, Tracy has been experiencing rapid growth as the pandemic has encouraged even more people to seek out affordable homes while remaining close to the big cities.

Despite the City's growth, it remains a tight-knit community. Downtown festivals, parades, farmers markets, holiday celebrations, and a strong sense of community pride are as active as ever, and even more opportunities are on the horizon. It's an exciting time to be Inside the Triangle!

Work Inside the Triangle: City Manager

The City Manager position in Tracy presents an incredibly exciting and rewarding opportunity for the right candidate.

As Tracy continues its upward trajectory, it needs a passionate leader to help the City realize its full potential. The right City Manager will value all the City has to offer, recognize where Tracy could be even greater and take decisive action to meet the goals of the City Council. A collaborative, experienced and ethical leader will go far in this role.

The City Manager serves as the Chief Executive Officer of the City, accountable to the City Council and responsible for the enforcement of all City codes, ordinances, and regulations; the conduct of all financial activities and the efficient and economic performance of the City's operations.

City Manager: The Ideal Candidate

As demonstrated over the past decade, Tracy is a rapidly growing city that has the potential to welcome a plethora of economic development opportunities, a growing housing market and an expanding population of young families while retaining its small-town feel.

As Tracy's City Manager, you will have the chance to make real and lasting impacts on one of the Bay Area's fastest growing suburbs. The right person for this role will have extensive municipal experience from a comparable community with similar opportunities and challenges. Ideally, the right candidate will be an excellent generalist (though experience in economic development would be a bonus) and have a proven track record of delivering results. They will be personable and politically savvy — able to communicate effectively with many personalities and people from all walks of life. Additionally, the successful candidate will be a diplomatic yet strong leader. They will be able to collaborate effectively with council and staff, will stand behind their decisions, and be transparent and thorough in their communications.

City Manager: Key Traits

Experienced

The ideal candidate will have experience leading a large and complex City team and will be able to bring that expertise and stability to Tracy. They will be level-headed and able to handle difficult conversations with poise.

Honorable

The next City Manager will always operate with the highest level of integrity. They will be honest and transparent in their communications with staff, Council, and the community. They will trust their staff to fulfill their duties and keep the Council apprised of the status of ongoing projects.

Professional

The ideal City Manager will be a centered and self-assured leader. They will represent the City well, be able to separate constructive feedback from personal feelings, and conduct themselves with proper decorum at all times.

Growth-minded

Tracy is a diverse community with many perspectives and values. The new City Manager will be understanding of the varying needs of the community. They will respect the tradition of Tracy while helping usher the City into a new era.
