ABOUT PALOS VERDES ESTATES

The City of Palos Verdes Estates (PVE) is a beautiful coastal city with some of the best scenic views in all of Los Angeles County. PVE is an ideal location with low crime rates and housing density, preserved open space, rural character and endless outdoor activities. As the heart of the South Bay with numerous coves and easy local beach access, the community is a popular spot for beachgoers. The rolling hillsides offer picturesque hiking, while established neighborhoods combine scenic charm with a small-town flare. Residents contribute to a strong sense of community with many local events, community organizations, and neighborhood activities.

In addition to outdoor activities and beautiful views, PVE has multiple institutions that are integral to the community culture. As the oldest of the four cities on the Palos Verdes Peninsula, PVE is home to three architectural sites that have been officially named to the National Register of Historic Places including the Malaga Cove Plaza, Farnham Park Fountain and Mirlo Gate Lodge Tower. The Palos Verdes Golf Club, Palos Tennis Club, Palos Verdes Stables and Palos Verdes Beach and Athletic Club are all popular areas for residents to spend their time and connect with their community through activities ranging from horseback riding to golfing.

Palos Verdes Estates has something to offer everyone. With breathtaking ocean views and stunning natural landscapes, Palos Verdes Estates is continually recognized as one of the most desirable places to live in southern California, making it an ideal place to live, work and play.

THE FINANCE DEPARTMENT

The Finance Department plays a vital role in the City's financial health, overseeing daily operations to long-term fiscal planning. This team manages core financial functions, including budgeting for operations and capital projects, financial forecasting, policy development and investment oversight. The department also ensures smooth financial system administration and banking support.

The Department, led by the Finance Director, is a small but dedicated and experienced team of one full-time senior accountant and two full-time analysts.
